

LL.M. IN CHINESE LAW - CLASS OF 2026 ENROLLMENT GUIDE

STUDY CHINESE LAW IN CHINA'S BEST LAW SCHOOL

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Amid China's rapid economic growth and growing influence on the global stage, Chinese law has emerged as both a vital field of study and a practical tool for international students and legal professionals engaged with China through business, culture, academia, or public policy. In response to this global interest, Renmin Law School has established the LL.M. Program in Chinese Law—designed to provide international participants with an authoritative and insider's perspective on China's legal system from one of the country's leading law institutions.
- The Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Chinese Law is a two-year program offered in English by the Renmin Law School as a key component of the Renmin University of China Global Talents Program. Designed for outstanding students and professionals who hold at least a bachelor's degree, the program offers a unique opportunity to gain in-depth knowledge of Chinese law and its practical applications. We welcome intellectually motivated candidates from diverse legal traditions, academic backgrounds, and professional trajectories to join a dynamic community of learners and future leaders.

OUR ALUMNI

XIAO Yang

Former President of the Supreme People's Court of the People's Republic of China

XIAO Yang was an outstanding member of the Communist Party of China, a distinguished leader in China's political and legal front, and former President of the Supreme People's Court. He graduated from the Law Department of Renmin University of China, began working in January 1962. From 1998 to 2008, he served as President of the Supreme People's Court of the People's Republic of China and was the Chief Grand Justice of the People's Republic of China. While working at the Supreme People's Court, he championed "justice and efficiency" as the court's central theme, aiming to build a fair, efficient, and authoritative socialist judicial system with Chinese characteristics in accordance with constitutional principles. He systematically reformed the judicial system, proposed the professionalization of judges, recommended the central leadership adopt the criminal policy of "tempering justice with mercy," and reformed the death penalty review system.

ZHANG Jun

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHTS

Merna Al Nasser, Class of 2020, Jordan

My LL.M. journey at Renmin University of China broadened my world. It taught me not only Chinese law but also the spirit of openness and dialogue that connects nations. I'm proud to be an alumnus.

Christian Wagner, Class of 2022, Germany

The LLM program at Renmin University of China is academically one of the highest-quality opportunities not only to understand the Chinese legal system, but also to find one's own intellectual direction.

Yuki Hashiba, Class of 2023, Japan

Completing my legal education at Renmin Law School was an exceptional experience. The rigorous academic curriculum fostered critical thinking and deepened my understanding of Chinese law.

Rafael Maharram, Class of 2024, Azerbaijan

The professors are top-notch – they're not just experts in their field, but also incredibly engaging and approachable, which makes learning here so much more enjoyable. What I've really appreciated is the chance to interact with classmates from all over the world. It's been an eye-opening experience that has not only expanded my knowledge of Chinese law but also shaped the way I approach legal issues globally.
